

HOMECOMING FORUM 2011

Saturday, May 21, 2011
Hungarian Embassy, Washington DC
2850 Spring of Freedom street, NW, 20008

-
- | | |
|---------------|---|
| 9:00 – 9:30 | Arrival and Registration |
| 9:30 – 11:00 | Opening Remarks by Ambassador György Szapáry

Introductions by Mr. Balázs Erdei , Science and Technology Attaché, Hungarian Embassy

Genzyme: The History of Contribution to the Field of Biotechnology
Mr. Zoltán Csimma , Senior Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer, Genzyme Corporation

Litracon: Innovative Light-transmitting Concrete Products from Hungary
Mr. Áron Losonczy , Inventor, Founder and CEO of Litracon

Competition Policy and Economic Development
Mr. Krisztián Katona , Counsel for International Antitrust, US Federal Trade Commission |
| 11:00 – 11:15 | Coffee Break |
| 11:15 – 12:30 | Hungarian Club of Washington DC
Ms. Kinga Révész , HSC President, Research Chemist, US Geological Survey

New York Hungarian Scientific Society
Ms. Zsófia Trombitás , NYHSS Founder, Consul at the Hungarian Consulate, NYC

Hungarian American Educators Association
Ms. Enikő Molnár Basa , AHEA Founder and Executive Director |
| 12:30 – 13:30 | Networking Buffet Lunch |
| 13:30 – 13:45 | Introducing WebCam Laboratory – video presentation
Mr. Zolt Szigetlaci , Founder and CEO |
| 13:45 – 15:00 | Brief Reports; Panel Discussions and contributions by the Participants; General Discussions and Consular Information (by Mr. Szabolcs Nemes , consul) followed by introductions by the Calasanctius Study Program |
-